

October fundraising ideas

Support your local children's hospice with some spooky fundraising ideas!

Halloween Party

Get your friends and family together for a 'spooktacular' party! Everybody loves to dress up for Halloween, so why not offer a prize for the most 'frightful' costume of the evening. You could even ask for donations to have a go at Apple Bobbing with prizes of toffee apples, candyfloss or even a warming glass of spiced punch!

Spooky Trivia Night

Organise a Halloween themed trivia night with a prize for the winner and all participants paying an admission fee. You could encourage your guests to dress up or even hold a Harry Potter themed evening!

Soup Lunch Fundraiser

Cook up a large batch of soup and take it in to work! Encourage those that normally pop out and buy lunch (and even those that don't!) to save money and donate to a worthy cause.

Barn Dance

Invite your friends, supply refreshments, charge an entrance fee & you could even hold a raffle on the night to bump up those donations! Dancing is obligatory, so pull on your cowboy boots, grab your partner by the hand and get your 'Hoedown' on!

Leaf Clearing

Ask friends, family and neighbours if they need their gardens and pathways cleared of autumn leaves in return for a donation.

Every penny you raise will make a real difference to local children and their families.

Scary Movie Night

Sit back on the sofa, put your feet up and turn your movie night into a fundraiser! A great laid back way to fundraise, simply supply the drinks and popcorn, rent or buy a suitably scary movie and ask your friends for a donation to come and watch your spooky screening.

Conker Tournament

Revisit your childhood by holding a conker tournament! Charge for entry and award a prize for the winner. For an added fundraising boost, hold a sweepstake to guess how long it takes the first conker to get destroyed. Enjoy some good old fashioned fun!

Treasure Hunt

This one doesn't just have to be for children - it's a great one for kids of all ages! Simply create some clues and charge your friends, family members or colleagues to hunt the 'treasure' and let the fun unfold!

Pumpkin Carving Competition

Why not get creative and hold a pumpkin carving contest? You could even ask your local grocery or farm shop for pumpkin donations.

Every penny you raise will make a real difference to local children and their families.
