

December fundraising ideas

Letters to Santa

Host an event with an entry fee where children can write their letters to Santa and put them in a special mailbox with express delivery to the North Pole. Parents can pay extra for their child to receive a personalised reply from Santa.

Pin the nose on Rudolph

Take Pin the Tail on the Donkey and give it a festive twist. Hang up a poster of Rudolph, blindfold your guests, and see if they can pin the bright red nose in the right spot. Guests will pay an entry fee, and the closest pin wins a prize.

Ugly Christmas jumper competition

This can be at school, work or a club you attend. Encourage participants to pay an entry fee and unleash their funniest festive attire with the most outstanding and creative outfit winning the prize. Present wrapping event

Many people leave this to the last minute as it can be a time-consuming and challenging task. Gather your best volunteers for professional gift wrapping and set up a stall offering to wrap people presents for them. If this is a popular service, you can organise time slots for people to book in for.

Musical bingo

A more interactive version of bingo and a perfect way to start festivities by re-familiarising yourself with infamous Christmas tunes. Top tip: Please check the gambling commission website for regulations for hosting a charity bingo event.

Every penny you raise makes a real difference to local children and their families.
